CATALOGUE #50 (HALF A HUNDRED) SHOULD BE A COMMEMORATIVE ISSUE or a landmark of some magnitude! Yet here is our Catalogue #50 without any photographs, no crowns, no gold, no expensive Latin minors and no coins of any country outside of Latin America!

Even the Latin American inexpensive minors cover only the countries (alphabetically) from Argentina through Honduras (and excluding Brazil and Guatemala). On the face of it, one might assume that this Catalogue #50 presages the decline of its proprietor.

ON THE CONTRARY, we are proud to use this milestone list to illustrate the depth and breadth of our stock of Latin American minors! It is gradually becoming clear to us and to others in the hobby that FREEMAN CRAIG & COMPANY is the clearing house for non-gold Latin American coins. Can you imagine any other coin dealer producing a catalogue of this size with so many of these pieces? We are not prone to applauding ourselves but rather we are content that we have now established ourselves as the best source for Latin American coins. We hope that this status will continue!

PART THREE of the massive Davis collection will include the remaining inexpensive minors, i.e., from BRAZIL, GUATEMALA, MEXICO, NICARAGUA, PANAMA, PARAGUAY, SALVADOR, URUGUAY and VENEZUELA. That Catalogue #51 in September will probably also contain some crowns as well as some of the more expensive minor coins.

* * * * * DISCOUNTS * * * * *

CATALOGUE #50 has been prepared with the specialized collector foremost in mind. Recognizing that many of you will desire more pieces than you can comfortably afford, we offer the following discounts on this list only:

Orders for 76-150 different pieces will be discounted 15% from these prices.

Orders for over 150 different pieces will be DISCOUNTED A FULL 18%!

Leave your name and the list numbers wanted; we will contact you in case of confusion. When personally available, Freeman or Marney (but not the answering service) can be telephoned at 415-332-1828.

ARGENTINA, the second largest Latin American country, is the largest Spanish speaking country in the world. Currently their economy seems to be flourishing after several years of politically-related turmoil. There is a tremendous "home market" for all rare and choice Argentine coins. Potosi colonial coinage is collected as colonial "Argentina" issues. The 19th Century provincial coinage is complex and fascinating; many are still available in attractive condition at modest prices. Republic coinage (from 1881) is rather unexciting but many are scarce to rare in superior grade.

BOLIVIA Beginning with the rare La Plata (Sucre) issues of 1574, this land-locked nation has produced a fascinating series of coinage types spanning both undated and dated cobs, pillars, busts, early republic "Bolivar" soles, pesos and bolivianos. Intensive coinage ceased about 1908 but some unexciting modern issues do exist. Home of the most prolific silver mine in the world, the "Cerro de Potosi", most Bolivian coinage is silver.

Type collecting of any (or all) coinage periods is a stimulating experience while date or variety collecting could be a lifelong endeavor. The coinage of this country is one of our favorites but it is too extensive and difficult for most casual collectors.

BRAZIL 1695-1972 - a collection of several hundred pieces, many in superior grade, will be offered in our Catalogue No. 51 in September, 1979.

BRITISH HONDURAS Known as Belize since 1973, this small area has been under British protection for centuries yet is constantly afflicted by Guatemala's claim to the land. The coins are an attractive series to collect if in high grade. Most pieces are available, albeit infrequently, in choice grade.

CHILE A country with a history of important numismatists, most of whom are now either inactive or deceased. Recent years, especially the Allende era, have seen a decline in local interest and therefore this once popular series is in a dormant state. Coins of the colonial period are generally seen in wretched condition (except for some superb hoard pieces) and are mostly scarce. Republic pieces by type are mostly quite attractive and worth pursuing; date collecting of the 1853-1875 issues is actually a fairly easy task with many superb quality pieces available at low to moderate prices.

COLOMBIA This northernmost South American country is rapidly gaining economic power; concurrently, new sizeable groups of coin collectors are appearing in the major cities. A well-financed, modern and professional "coin shop" was recently opened in Bogota; the national numismatic association has become large enough to hold a national convention. Presently the local interest is centered on 20th century issues; as sophistication develops, we expect a sizeable price increase in decent F-VF (and better) specimens of all 19th century issues.

COSTA RICA This small Central American republic, with a European-oriented population, is a favorite for vacationing Americans and even has a sizeable "American Settlement" in the hills above San Jose. The national coinage includes many attractive regular issues plus a fascinating group of six major counterstamp types. The coinage is almost all inexpensive; nice grade material sells for about one-fourth of what it would intuitively "seem to be worth". A type collection of this coinage is a pleasure to assemble, view and own.

CUBA The largest island in the Caribbean and the 15th largest island in the world, Cuba was discovered by Columbus on his first voyage to the new world. The Cuban peso was on a par with the U.S. dollar until 1959. A 1000 peso bill, Series 1950, was worth $1000 at one time, but is now worth $75 - $100. Many refugees carried quantities of late date circulated coins with them when they left Cuba and have flooded south Florida with them.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC This fertile picturesque country shares the island of Hispaniola with Haiti. It is the source of the first coinage of the Americas (and some of her rarest silver types). The modern coinage (1844 to date) is attractive in high grade and can be secured with perseverance. Current collectors of Latin American coinage owe a degree of thanks to this island for giving us the well-known numismatists, Issac Rudman and Alcedo Almanzar.

ECUADOR This oil-rich country has just recently begun to appreciate its own coinage; most pre-1884 issues offered in the marketplace end up in collections in either Quito or Guayaquil. The early liberty head issues, based on U.S. coinage designs, are quite beautiful and are mostly rare in nice condition.

GUATEMALA A very nice group of republic material, with come colonial pieces added, will be offered in our Catalogue No. 51 in September, 1979.

HAITI This Franch-speaking western third of the Caribbean island of Hispaniola produced a series of somewhat crude and fascinating coins during the first half of the 19th century. Collecting these older issues by major die varieties is an inexpensive and entertaining hobby for several serious collectors. The post-1860 issues are rather bland by comparison but comprise a fairly interesting and attractive group when in choice grade.

HONDURAS Numismatically rich but economically very poor and under-developed, the coinage of this country was plagued with problems from the time of its first provisional issues until the Lempira system started in 1931. Assembling a complete date collection, or even a type set, of all Honduras coinage is seemingly impossible. Nonetheless, the very nature of the conquest has prompted several very serious numismatists to attach their endless energies and affection to this area. If you wish to try the "impossible", join them in collecting Honduras coins by date.
